Soviets Break
Into Vitebsk,
Big Nazi Base

Orsha, 47 miles below Vitebsk, but with Orsha itself in imminent danger, they encountered a new threat.

The Red Army attack was designed to smash the entire German network of defenses protecting White Russia, setting the stage for an advance to Poland and eventually Berlin.

The largest number of men, tanks and guns ever concentrated on so narrow a section of the front appeared to be hurrying to Moscow.

USE LONDON MEN
London sources estimated that the Russians were using 1,000,000 or more men in the coordinated White Russian offensive. The German DNB agency asserted that the Soviet army included 80 infantry divisions of 1,200,000 men and an entire tank army.

More than 70 towns and villages were liberated yesterday and today. By the late afternoon of the first three days of the offensive more than 100,000 Germans have been killed.

Special orders of the day by Marshal Josef Stalin to his army commanders by the Soviet high command yesterday disclosed that four, rather than two as originally announced, Russian armies were threatening Bobruisk and Mogilev, as well as Orsha and Vitebsk, farther north.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS
Latest developments in the four sectors included:

Vitebsk—The 1st Baltic and 3rd White Russian armies broke into Vitebsk after encircling the city and trapping its garrison of five infantry divisions, some 30,000 to 35,000 men.

Orsha, 47 miles south of Vitebsk—The 3rd White Russian army outflanked Orsha to the west of Senno, 35 miles to the northwest, and pushed along the Moscow-Minsk-Warsaw railway to within 40 miles of Orsha in a frontal attack.

Mogilev, 87 miles south of Vitebsk—The 2nd White Russian army under Col. Gen. P. D. Zakharov, broke through the enemy lines to a depth of 18 miles on a 46-mile wide front before Mogilev and captured 200 tanks, among them Suikhar, 14 miles south of Mogilev. The 2nd army also forced the enemy River.

Bobruisk, 150 miles south of Vitebsk—The 1st White Russian army under Gen. Konstantin Rokossovsky, hero of Stalingrad, breached German defenses on a 10 mile front east and to 30 miles from south of Bobruisk. Among the more than 100 towns and villages captured were Moshina, 22 miles southeast of Bobruisk, and Sialki, 35 miles northeast. The fall of Moshina means capture of a railway running southwest from Bobruisk to Linnaya, east of Poland.

1st Baltic army under Gen. Ivan C. Bagration and 2nd White Russian army under Col. Gen. Ivan Cherniakovsky completed the encirclement of Vitebsk, a city of 107,000 and closest enemy base to Moscow (Giedeloch), 110 miles to the west, then broke into the city itself and engaged the doomed garrison in a street battle.

Recapture Nazis
PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 26.—(CP)—Hans Hautzack, 22, and Heinrich Schollmann, 20, two German naval prisoners of war who escaped from an internment camp last Thursday in the nearby Vistula military camp area, were recaptured Saturday about seven miles from the point where they made their escape from a work camp.

Si six enemy planes attempting to direct the U-boats to the attack also were shot down by naval fighter planes.

The only Allied loss on sea or in the air was one plane downed by a U-boat. The plane crashed in the North Atlantic.

The admiralty said the operations were carried out under the command of Vice-Admiral Sir H. G. Dairymple-Hamilton, C.B., flying his flag in the cruiser H.M.S. Dard (Capt. G. A. Clifford, R.N.), naval aircraft operated from escort carrier H.M.S. Activity (Capt. G. Willoughby, R.N.), and H.M.S. Tracker (Capt. H. J. Huntley, R.N.).

SHIPS MADE CONTACT
First contact with the enemy force was made by ships of the second escort group under command of Capt. F. J. Walker, C.B., D.S.O., R.N., in his ship H.M.S. Stirling, which, of company with H.M.S. Maple, commanded by Lt. Cmdr. R. S. Abram, R.N., carried out a search for the enemy's U-boats against a suspected U-boat.

Later, the admiralty said, "Deep underwater explosions and breaking-up noises were heard." Shortly afterwards oil and much evidence of destruction rose to the surface.

Another U-boat was detected in a position several miles from the convoy by the destroyer H.M.S. Keppel, which, of company with H.M.S. D.S.C., R.N., which attacked with depth charges and destroyed the U-boat.

PLANE SIGHTS SUB
Later a Swordfish plane from H.M.S. Activity, sighted a U-boat surface and reported the enemy's position while closing in to attack. An Avenger, which was subsequently shot down, also attacked the U-boat by escorting aircraft, the admiralty said.

NEW YORK, June 26.—On the night of Jan. 25, a little young Negro named Joe Williams seemed to have been knocked "dead" in every sense of the word at the Philadelphia Convention Hall.

CANADIAN SHOTS

By Syd Thomas

TORONTO, June 26.—(CP)—It's nothing unusual for baseball teams to toss players on the ground when they aren't producing, or give the merry heavens to a manager when the team hits the skids, but the higher-ups of the baseball world usually are a little more secure in their seats of authority. But not so at the Lakehead.

The Lakehead Senior Baseball League has changed its presidents twice already this season, and it is in a fair way to become known as the "parade of the presidents." Elliott Spinks in the Port Arthur Star Chronicle, Ray Smith, after several years as proxy, handed over the reins to Bob James and now Bob is heading for St. Paul, Minn., and the league is looking around for a successor.

SINO, SINGH:

The wrestling fans in Toronto got their money's worth at a bout between Sino Singh and Frank Sexton. Tired of being mere spectators, a few daring souls at the ring-side raised Sino Singh and dragged him from the ring to give him a going over.

Singh had been roughing up Sexton a bit too vigorously, and the boys apparently didn't like his villain act, so decided to make him uncrucial for a change. Just as we were saying the other day, wrestling crowds have more fun than anyone else.

Novel Ball Game Set For Tonight
NEW YORK, June 26.—(AP)—A novel "no-revered" baseball game involving the Yankees, Dodgers and Giants for the benefit of the Fifth War Loan will be played tonight at the Polo Grounds. Each of the teams will bat and field six times during the nine innings. The winner will be the team that scores the greatest number of runs in six turns at the plate. Admission is solely by purchase of a war bond.

Pinch Homer in Last Inning

Gives Pirates Tie With Cards

PITTSBURGH, June 26.—(AP)—Pittsburgh Pirates rallied with three runs in the ninth inning to salvage at least a 5-5 tie in the second game of a National League twin-bill against St. Louis Cards yesterday, after dropping a 2-1 verdict in the curtain-raiser.

Spud Davis' pinch homer with a mate aboard in the last frame was protested by the Cards' manager, Billy Southworth, because the ball went through the right field screen.

Davis scored Al Lopez ahead of him to tie the count, as Pennsylvania's career law halted the game.

Albertans in Drive Attack Across Melfa River Memorable Day for Canucks

By DOUG HOW
WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, June 26—(CP)—Things have been happening in the advance since, but the day a western motorized battalion remembers best is that May 24 when a bridgehead was established across the Melfa river to further the exploitation of the Canadian victory in the Hitler Line.

Defence of Islands Costs Japs Heavy

PEARL HARBOR, June 26 (AP)—Japan's defence of the Marianas and Bonin has cost the Japanese 747 planes destroyed, 30 ships sunk, 11 damaged and two probably sunk and 13 barges destroyed, it was announced last night.

A communiqué from Pacific fleet headquarters revised losses inflicted on the enemy in the two weeks, June 10 to 25.

It added 109 planes shot down, three ships damaged—a light carrier, a heavy cruiser and a light cruiser—and transferred a tanker previously reported sunk to the damaged list.

At the same time headquarters announced that American planes had carried off a heavy bomber and damaged nearly 27 aircraft of Japanese planes.

On Sulipan Island troops advanced 500 to 800 yards Saturday on the western flank and an attack on entrenched Japanese on Mount Tapachau, the communiqué said.

On the eastern flank, the communiqué said, the Japanese were repulsed.

By Canuck Troops "Impregnable" Hitler Line Cracked in Hard Assault

By DOUGLAS AMARON
WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, June 26—(CP)—The Hitler Line loomed up like an impregnable steel wall before the 48th Highlanders. Machine-gun posts bristled behind barbed wire strung with mines. Pill boxes mounted in concrete and steel controlled the approaches. The long barrels of 75 and 88mm. guns jutted out from solid emplacements. An anti-tank ditch ran across the face of the line.

The 48th faced up to that line for 24 hours, under constant assault, then drove forward in an assault which cracked the line at the southern end.

It was an opening which was widened next day to a full-sized breach when the 48th, followed by the 4th and 5th Canadian Infantry, smashed through further north the Aquino-Pontecorvo Road. Other Ontario troops passed through the gap made by the 48th and the Hitler line was broken.

The main attack began at 10 o'clock May 22 following heavy barrage and with the support of a squadron of tanks.

Under orders of "B" and "D" companies pushed through and formed a bridgehead from 300 to 400 yards wide. "A" and "C" companies followed through making a night swing to fold up the line. Their objective was high ground across a 200-yard open plain, and their advance was made in face of the machine-gun fire.

The men of "C" company tried three times to move forward, gained about 200 yards in and were stopped. They jumped into the anti-tank ditch on their right for the fourth attempt and got almost to the top when more fire pinned them down and they decided to consolidate for the night.

"A" company inched forward to the base of the high ground, which was the objective a hill known as 106.

Just "JOB" ALONE
There was to be tank support but they were not there. The 48th and the infantry went forward alone. "D" company getting half of the hill and the 48th were being pinned down. "B"

Coldwell Against "Big Four" Peace

TAMMINGTON, Pa. June 26—(AP)—It would be dangerous in the extreme to leave the maintenance of peace to the care of the four major powers—Britain, the United States, Soviet Russia and China, M. J. Coldwell, national leader of the C.C.P., said in an address here yesterday.

Domination by the great powers would weaken the distrust of smaller nations, Coldwell told the 10th annual Tamiment Social and Economic Institute conference.

Expositions Extension of Northern Alberta Railways

Vice-President of C.P.R. Is Impressed With Farming Possibilities of Northland

Railway extension from Grimshaw and Fort St. John as Northern Alberta and the North West Territories are developed was envisioned by W. M. Neal, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who returned Saturday evening from an inspection tour to Whitehorse, Norman Wells, and the Yellowknife mining area.

Mr. Neal, who is also vice-president of C. P. Air Lines, was accompanied on the tour by W. M. G. Macdonald, vice-president, C. P. Western Lines, and Hon. Phillips Brien, Montreal, chairman of the Quebec legislative committee.

He referred to the great agricultural possibilities of the territory north of Grimshaw and said this country was one of the last remaining in Canada for agricultural development. As settlement and development takes place it will be necessary to give consideration to railway facilities for the territory, he said. He noted that railway facilities now were the last to enter new territory.

Commenting on the Northern mining firms Mr. Neal said that with assurance of adequate labour and material there would be great development could be expected in this region.

On their way to Wilkie, they were accompanied by the division engineer, Mr. V. H. Carruthers, division engineer, Mr. V. H. Carruthers, division engineer, Mr. V. H. Carruthers.

Bicycle Rider And Car Collide

A Kinned rider was the only injury suffered by 15-year-old Marvin Volv, Belmont apartments, when he rode his bicycle into the front bumper of an auto and was thrown to the pavement at 96 street and 106A avenue about 7:25 p.m. Saturday.

Driver of the auto, Mike Charvalley of Mundare, told police he saw the young coming toward him, cut across the street and did not see the car until he was about to collide with it.

Police Force Investigating Theft Reports

Reports of thefts which police busy over the weekend, according to reports issued Monday morning.

Breaking a glass of glass at the Salvage Pit Auto Wreckage, 1088 street, thieves helped themselves to one of three automobile gear boxes left on a work-bench, early Saturday morning.

Two visitors to the city reported that they had lost $200 to thieves while asleep in their hotel room, early Saturday.

Christa Weder and Arthur LeBlanc, both of Brynol, were the victims of the theft. The former, a trucker, had brought a load of hogs to the city, for which he had received an advance of $525. The rest of the $525 was his own. He and LeBlanc occupied the same room.

Unable to sleep, the latter got out of bed about 3 a.m., at which time he noticed the door to the room was open. It was not until 5 a.m. that the thieves and their contents was discovered.

SHOP ENTERED
The unlocked rear door of the Henrietta Shoppe, 1080 Jasper avenue, attracted the attention of a patrol officer about 3:35 a.m. Sunday.

Upon investigation, it was found that the place had been broken into by means of the skylight, from which the thief had entered. A check of the place showed that a dresser had been ransacked. Five empty cash boxes were in one of the drawers.

The culprit left by the rear door, where an ordinary pass key had been left in the lock.

33 Farm Workers Gone to Ontario

A total of 33 farm workers have left Alberta for Ontario harvesting corn, according to Putnam, director, provincial agriculture extension service, stated here Monday. He estimated another 12 would leave before the end of the week.

The eastern harvest extension plan is being sponsored by Alberta, and the Ontario Farm Labour committee. Only men who can be spared from farm work in the province are being given permits to go east. They must return in time for the Alberta harvest.

Constantine the Great organized the seven-day week as a calendar division.

EDMONTON, ALBERTA—MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1944

Strengthening of Friendship and International Goodwill

The meeting opened with a singing led by T. Sgt. Fred M. Holmes, Col. Gordon R. Holmes, offered the evening prayer, Capt. William J. Brown, Northwest Service Command Protestant chaplain, spoke briefly on the subject "We Too Have a Battle". He asked youths to seek a greater victory than D-Day. "We shall, ever many years have passed be crying out loud once more that men have died in vain. Men are dying now to vindicate the faith in which others died a quarter of a century ago."

Speaking of winning battles, he said, "We have a battle to win. We owe to ourselves, to our country and our brothers in arms the responsibility of becoming acquainted with the significant political situations which are arising as the liberation of one country after another continues. We must acquaint ourselves with the tendencies toward religious, racial and group intolerances, which are springing up and with the inevitable collisions to which they are leading."

MORAL BATTLE
He emphasized the moral battle of life in that the moral battles in the mind are often more important than physical fitness and moral actions. He said to ourselves and others to guard against these evils and to lend our influence to better the moral standards of our nation," he said.

There is need to recognize that there is a difference between religion and righteousness, between doctrine and spirituality, between church and Christianity. He said, "We are youth."

The musical concert was arranged by Sgt. Tom C. Slemore, president of the U.S.A.A.P. Service Men's League, who gave the address of presentation.

Contributing artists included: Sgt. Fred M. Holmes, S-Sgt. Capt. Gordon R. Holmes, Sgt. Franklin Bennett, and S-Sgt. Ross D. Cooper.

NATIONAL ANTHEMS
Singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and the "Marseillaise" climaxed the program. Captain Brown pronounced the program a success.

The Rev. Dr. R. McElroy Thompson, minister of the church, on behalf of the young people, expressed their appreciation of the program and termed this "spirit of co-operation and friendliness" the cause of understanding and goodwill between "our countries" through the centuries.

The Inquiring Reporter
THE QUESTION
What do you think of the proposal made by a delegation of writers, musicians and artists to set up a center for the fine arts. The plan is to give jobs to the unemployed and to provide opportunities previously enjoyed only by persons in large cities.

THE ANSWERS
Mrs. A. STOCKWELL, housewife: "I'm all for it and think it is a particularly good idea for the smaller communities where previously there has been no such venture."

EVELYN GRANT, stenographer: "It's a very fine thing but before making any decision, they need good health and leisure. The ten million dollars might be spent more profitably in an effort to raise the health of the nation."

WILLIAM BROWN, student: "Speaking from the student's point of view, I think it would be a very fine thing. If we had a center for the fine arts, we could have more concerts and recitals here. I think it would be a good idea to combine a sporting center with the arts center, so that communities need facilities for recreation."

I Saw Today Army Requires 5,000 Recruits By End August

Alberta's quota of the 48,000 enlistments needed in the Canadian Active Army before the end of August is 5,000 men, according to the district recruiting officer, Maj. J. H. Gainer, M.C., who arrived in Edmonton Saturday for a two-day visit.

Enlistment in the army provides a wonderful opportunity for 17-year-old youths to receive training which their scholastic training, he said. The men are on boys pay until they reach the age of 21, when they receive full soldiers pay and are provided with trades training. As they cannot be posted to an active field of combat until they are 19 they receive two years of training which will be of great value to them after war ceases.

Major Gainer pointed out that he was not at all concerned that boys who are able to continue their scholastic training on their own but added that men are able to continue their schooling, including university education, while in army service.

GETS RESULTS HERE
He said he has always enjoyed remarkable co-operation in Edmonton and stated that recruits in the C.W.A.C. were higher from Edmonton than Calgary. More than 500 recruits for the women's corps are needed in the province before the end of July.

He said that with the selective recruiting in the C.W.A.C. women are enlisted for specific jobs and are not sent out as general recruits and then put at some other work.

ARMY OFFICER AND BRIDE

Miss Vera Horner attended as bridesmaid, wearing a long-sleeved frock of pink sheer, styled with a full skirt falling softly from a shirred bodice, high round neckline and long full sleeves. She wore a small pink hat trimmed with tiny blue and pink flowers, and carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations and sweetpeas.

Best man was Sidney Thorkelson, brother of the bride, and ushering the guests to their places in the church were Billy Brown, brother of the bride, and Ian Robertson.

F. M. Bonner played the wedding march, and Miss Ada Toffey sang "All Joy Be Thine" during the reception of the register.

After the ceremony a reception to 25 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, 11733 92 street.

Mr. Boyar, mother of the bride, receiving her guests, was wearing a navy blue dress, with a white collar, her hat was a navy blue shoulder model, and her accessories were in white. She wore a shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Thorkelson, the bride's mother, chose a dove gray knit dress, with a navy hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

BRIDES' TABLE The bride's table was set in white lace, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Pink and white pennants and white lilies, completed the table decorations.

The young man proposed the toast to the bride. Miss Edith Wood and Miss Rose Johnson were bridesmaids in waiting.

Dear Mom & Dad -
Arrived safe, after a grand trip all the way, never saw the sign of a sub. And am I glad I came. It makes me feel good to be with a crowd like this. They're from all over Canada, but it seems like I've known them all my life.
I wouldn't have missed this for the world.
The Infantry has got to finish the job.
and everyone of us is keen to get a crack at it. And we'll need a lot more volunteers to see us through.
